Tanglin The Croft

Costessey, Norwich

Tucked away within the highly regarded setting of The Croft in Old Costessey, Tanglin is a generously proportioned detached home offering an appealing combination of contemporary living, versatile accommodation and a wonderfully peaceful setting. Extending to approximately 1,777 sq.ft., the property provides well-balanced accommodation arranged over two floors, ideally suited to modern family living.

The main living accommodation is centred around a spacious dual-aspect sitting/dining room, filled with natural light and featuring doors opening directly onto the south-facing garden. Offering ample space for both comfortable seating and dining, this is an ideal room for everyday living as well as entertaining.

The kitchen/breakfast room provides a further sociable space, with room for dining and doors leading out to the garden. A useful utility area and additional storage add to the practicality, whilst travertine flooring continues through the kitchen and hallway.

The property offers four double bedrooms, with two conveniently positioned on the ground floor and served by a bathroom, providing excellent versatility for family living, guests or those seeking accommodation without relying entirely on the first floor. Upstairs, both bedrooms benefit from their own en-suite facilities. The principal bedroom enjoys extensive built-in storage, whilst the guest bedroom is further complemented by a separate dressing room.
